

Position Title: Centre-Based Marker – NSW NAPLAN 2023

Department:	Pearson Assessment Services
Reports To:	Justen Allemand
Direct Reports:	Group Leaders, Professional Leaders and the Marking Centre Managers
Location:	Centre-based markers will work onsite from the Pearson Marking Centre at the Canterbury Park Racecourse in Sydney. This position is open to applicants from metropolitan Sydney, NSW.

Purpose of this Position

You will be part of one of the largest learning companies internationally and work alongside like-minded professionals in assessing a range of NAPLAN Writing responses from Year 3, 5, 7 and 9 students. Participating in the marking of NAPLAN Writing also provides a meaningful and rewarding experience, as you will be helping to enhance literacy levels in NSW and ACT.

Key Responsibilities

Attend and successfully complete marker training and induction.

Demonstrate competence in the online marking procedures and instructions.

Mark candidate responses, at an item level, using the eMARK system.

Mark candidate responses of items accurately and in a timely manner in accordance with the marking criteria set by ACARA, the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) and Pearson.

Complete all marking in accordance with training and rostered dates.

Maintain the security and confidentiality of all assessment information and materials.

Request assistance from the Group Leader where there is uncertainty in the application of the marking rubric to a candidate's script before assigning scores.

Carry out other tasks assigned by the Group Leader, Professional Leader or any member of the Pearson staff.

Requirements

We require centre-based markers to be available for the entire period of live marking, including training.

- Marking period: approximately 4 - 6 weeks.
- Training period: mid-March 2023.
- Marking will begin immediately after the training period and continue until approximately mid to late April.

Centre-based markers are required to be available to work a 5-day weekday shift (Day or Evening), and one weekend shift (Saturday or Sunday) during the live marking period.

Markers are required to attend their rostered shift for either the Day (8:00 AM to 3:00 PM) or Evening (4:00 PM to 8:45 PM) shift during live marking.

Be prepared to accurately mark candidates' work samples using the marking framework presented in training for writing.

Be prepared to receive ongoing support and instruction regarding the marking of NAPLAN writing as part of quality assurance protocols.

Be able to work as part of a supportive team and have the ability to work in accordance with marking rate targets.

Key Relationships / Stakeholders

Group Leaders	Monitors the daily productivity, quality and attendance of their team.
Professional Leaders	Monitors the progress and quality of marking and identify if any retraining is required.

Marking Centre Managers

Oversees all matters around marking progress, marking quality and any issues that may arise during the course of the operation.

Qualifications and/or Experience

Mandatory

Have been teaching English or Social Sciences in an Australian Primary or Secondary School for at least 1 year or hold NESA Conditional or Provisional Accreditation.

Mandatory

Have previously been a NAPLAN Marker or completed the NESA Persuasive Writing or Narrative Writing Course. (Both free courses are available on the NESA Learning Page).

Mandatory

Have a Bachelor's degree in teaching (we are also accepting applications from students studying a teaching degree in their penultimate (final) year from a reputable Australian institution).

Mandatory

Be able to use a computer to conduct marking and complete appropriate training.

Preferable

Have an understanding of criterion-based marking (writing), grammar and structures.

Other Relevant Information

This position description is indicative of the range of job requirements.

The job comprises other duties as required.

It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure they behave in a way that is consistent with the company's Code of Conduct and its policies and procedures.